GENERAL INFORMATION

The Upper Hunter Show invites all young beef enthusiasts to participate in the 2018 Upper Hunter Show Youth Camp.

This event has been successful in creating and maintaining youth interest in Agriculture and related Rural Industries with a specific focus on the Beef Cattle Industry. It provides excellent opportunities for personal development and increasing self-confidence through parading competitions, judging competitions and public speaking along with a number of novelty events designed to keep the fun in the passion for the industry.

Due to the popularity of this event this year's numbers will be capped to ensure quality time and instruction can be devoted to participants by experienced and enthusiastic instructors.

The entry fee for the participants includes the full cost of the educational hands-on and fun program, all meals from Friday morning tea to Saturday lunch, and a camp jacket for participants.

Entry forms must be received by closing date. Participants are asked to supply own animals. Please note that if there are animal shortages it may be necessary for an animal to be shared by participants.

There will be designated sleeping areas, which requires adult supervision for the participants choosing to stay on the show grounds. Please note that the Upper Hunter Show Society take no responsibility for the participants outside the program hours. The committee encourages all parents/carers to stay and get involved in the show. The success of this event relies on help and participation of parents/carers.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Participants are to be under 21 years of age as of 1st August 2018. If the participant is under the age of 18, a parent/carer must give consent of entry by signing the entry form. Whilst all reasonable precautions will be taken by the Committee members and the Upper Hunter Show Society to ensure the safety of all attendees, each Competitor or parent/carer signing this form agrees to indemnify the Committee, the Upper Hunter Show Society against any claim resulting from any accident or sickness that may occur at the event or associated with the event.
